for unity on left-wing to fight back against dictatorship. recently protest actions have been increasing as people become increasingly hostile toward regime and take to streets despite continuing repressions by the military. pinochet continues to promise elections but these promises are as empty as his earlier ones. even pinochet's former supporters are now turning against him. however, usa continues to bolster up its

96 anon. "'mayo' zionist voices": egyptian weekly mayo became once famous for being mouthpiece of sadat; sadat died and magazine's fame faded. men of mayo however have now decided to return and published, as in days of sadat era, a dirty article against ussr in which they likened ussr -- this firm struggler for arb right -- to israel which has organized massacre of palestinians in sabra and shatila; issue here is not mayo's anti-soviet exercise, but what it publishes makes one ask "what has changed in egypt since sadat's days?"
